

THE MONKEY HEAD ACADEMY OF MUSIC

Experience Letter

This is to certify that Ms. Mariya Chherawala was employed at The Monkey Head Academy of Music as a Piano Instructor from April 15, 2023 to April 15, 2024.

During her tenure, Ms. Chherawala demonstrated exceptional skill and dedication in teaching piano to students of all ages, ranging from young beginners to advanced adult learners. Her expertise in both classical and contemporary piano techniques, combined with her ability to tailor teaching methods to individual student needs, greatly contributed to the marked progress and enthusiasm of her students.

Ms. Chherawala also played a vital role in managing student schedules, organizing recitals, and maintaining clear and effective communication with parents and guardians. Her organizational skills and attention to detail ensured the smooth and efficient operation of our programs. Her professionalism and approachable nature made her a favorite among students and colleagues alike.

Beyond her formal duties, Ms. Chherawala actively participated in curriculum development, bringing innovative ideas that enriched our piano program. Her willingness to go the extra mile to support her students, including offering additional practice sessions and personalized feedback, has left a lasting positive impact on our school community.

We deeply appreciate Ms. Chherawala's commitment and hard work over the past year. Her positive attitude and professional competencies have set a high standard within our institution. We are confident that she will bring the same level of excellence and dedication to any future endeavors she chooses to pursue.

This certificate is issued in recognition of her exemplary service and contribution to The Monkey Head Academy of Music.
