LETTER OF APPRECIATION

Prof. Chetan Machhi
Assistant Professor,
Sardar Patel College of Engineering,
Bakrol, Anand,
Gujarat - India.

Respected Sir,

On behalf of Civil Department, I would like take this opportunity to express my heartfelt thanks for delivering a two days workshop as guest speaker on "Fundamentals of structure design with STAAD-Pro" held on 13th & 14th May, 2020.

It was really splendid workshop which exposed students about basics of structure design as well as manual checks with software as per IS code. All the students appreciated and got benefitted from your technical knowledge towards the subject. Looking forward for your co-operation and hope you can join us again.

Thanking you,

Yours Sincerely

for Pantome. B Vyas.
