

Savoir-faire – A workshop for “Brides to be”

This workshop is designed keeping in mind the “Brides to be “who is just going to leave her parents home and go to a new house. She needs to be ready to take on new responsibilities. She was just a daughter/sister in the home ,now she will be taking on new roles of daughter in law, a wife ,a sister in law. She will make new friends, new colleagues and all these challenges will be along with a new place to adjust. All this is going to be very challenging. In schools and colleges we are not taught how to carry ourselves with aplomb. This course is designed in such a way that it makes you ready to face the world outside your father’s beautiful abode. A complete module is created for imparting knowledge to the princess of the house soon going to be the queen of the house to polish her necessary skills so that she can carry herself with ELAN and great self -respect. Master the art before you face a challenging task.

1. Spoken English Modules
2. Improve Communication – Verbal and Non Verbal
3. Improve Listening Skills
4. Improve Body language
5. Projecting right attitude
6. Knowing yourself – understanding difficulties and inhibitions
7. Overcoming Fears
8. Personal Grooming
9. Dressing and First Impression
10. Design & Colour
11. Improving interpersonal communication
12. Phone Etiquettes
13. Laying the dinner table – A practical class on laying right table wares with cutlery and glass.
14. How to Dine – Right Posture, usage of napkins and cutlery
15. High Tea Etiquettes
16. Role plays in various challenging situations
17. Making your New CV and cracking the job interview
18. Basic Makeup for office and evenings
19. Wealth Management
20. Test

Course Duration : 24 hours

Course fees : Rs.10,000/-

This course can be taken as an add on course with the English Learner’s course to develop complete confidence in how you speak and conduct yourself. The English learner’s course will give you confidence in speaking correct English and Savoir -faire course will help you hone all the required skills to face new environment.

This course can also be taken by itself wherein certain nuances of English grammar are covered.

Please call to understand the course better matching your requirements.

This is a very practical course and lot of participation is expected from the participants.

