Discuss both views and give your opinion?

Write at least 250 words

Primary intend of education is to have a successful career. A section of people opine that one should focus on a job only after procuring a university degree while another section says on finishing high school or higher secondary a student should start working. This essay will discuss both these views and in my opinion, to have a successful professional career specialization is mandatory in this competitive world.

Cut throat competition is a normal phenomenon in every field in the modern world. So, to stay in the race professional qualification is the most beneficial aspect to get in to any decent industry. Moreover, to sustain in the field with same vigor each and every person is expected to update themselves at regular intervals which shows learning never ends. To illustrate further, in this information age, knowledge is the most easily accessible substance and a requirement as one increase their seniority to stay relevant. These factors make it clear that not just a graduation but a never ending updating is the need of the hour.

Conversely, to start earning just after school education could be a necessity for some people. Reasons can be varied including the financial circumstances. If one person starts to work at such an early age, definitely practical experience he or she gains so early will play a critical role in their life that too in a positive manner. However, in this fast changing technology based era, where the changes are so unpredictable there is no guarantee that the said ability alone will always benefit. To adjust and keep pace with the frequently changing environment a sound educational foundation is compulsory.

To conclude, to survive in the hectic age, up to date knowledge is not a luxury but a necessity. This essay discussed both the given views on age to start working oneself and I feel, it is always better to spend time in universities to gather the required knowledge before hurrying for a job so that with a great foundation one can expect have an extended career of achievements.
