IELTS, TOEFL & PTE TRAINING

Course Overview

This course is for students from regional language backgrounds other than English whose primary objective is to study abroad and are preparing to sit for a formal systemic test of their English proficiency, such as IELTS, TOEFL or PTE.

Learning outcomes

Students, who successfully complete this course, would have developed the English language skills and the test-taking strategies; to help them undertake formal tests of their English proficiency on all four components. They will learn the following:

- Test structure, type and style of questions.
- Test directions and time management for the different sections.
- Reading and Listening strategies for speedy comprehension.
- Writing strategies to fulfill actual exam requirements.
- Speaking strategies to respond appropriately in the oral interview.

Assessment

A weekly assessment test is conducted to measure the student's progress and performance during the training. Students who fail to clear the assessments may be required to take additional training.
