- Grammar can be tough – it's important to make sure you keep up with it and reinforce your knowledge often. Otherwise, you will be in trouble at exam time!
- Invest in a grammar exercise book – there are hundreds of different ones available and a lot of them go right from the basics of conjugating the present tense etc. Probably the most useful is the 'Heinemann A-Level French Grammar Practice' which is matched to your textbook and specification
- <http://www.languagesonline.org.uk/> is excellent for grammar practice + has a lot of different exercises under the grammar section. There is a section called 'Verb busters' which (sounds ridiculous but) is extremely helpful for practising conjugating in all tenses. Short, regular sessions of using it a few times a week are one of the best ways of improving your conjugation skills.

French Grammar: Tenses

1) In any language, when we refer to something happening, we always use a tense to indicate whether it is going to, is, or has already, happened.

e.g. I'm going to eat an apple. I am eating an apple. I ate an apple.

2) French verbs are formed by: a stem + an ending (-ER, -RE, -IR)

3) To use the verbs in different tenses, we need to know some rules. These rules are simple and are applied to nearly all verbs.

4) Unfortunately, some verbs do not follow these rules and it is therefore important to know these IRREGULAR VERBS such as “aller” (to go), “faire” (to do), “avoir” (to have) or “être” (to be).

5) Tenses:

Le présent

Le passé composé

ÊTRE Verbs

A small group of verbs take the present tense of “être” as their auxiliary verb.

1) present tense of être + 2) past participle

An easy way to remember this group of verbs is with the name:

MRS VAN DE TRAMP

Mourir: to die: mort

Retourner: to return: retourné

Sortir: to go out: sorti

Venir: to come: venu

Arriver: to arrive: arrivé

Naître: to be born: né

Descendre: to go down: descendu

Entrer: to enter: entré

Tomber: to fall: tombé

Rester: to stay: resté

Aller: to go out: allé

Monter: to go up: monté

Partir: to leave: parti

N.B: The past participle must 'agree with' who did the action. So if the person was female you must add an extra -e to the end of the past participle: e.g. elle est partie - she left.

If two or more females did the action you must add -es:
e.g. elles sont parties - they left.

If the person who did the action was one male, then the past participle does not change:
e.g. il est parti - he left.

If two or more males did the action add -s: e.g. ils sont partis - they left.

L'Imparfait

When to use it: To talk about something that used to happen in the past.
To describe the way something was in the past (the weather was fine last Tuesday).

Phrases: Quand j'étais jeune (when I was young), l'année dernière (last year).

How to form l'imparfait:

- 1) Take the “nous” part of the present tense: e.g nous donnons
- 2) Drop the -ons: e.g donn
- 3) Add the endings: -ais, -ais, -ait, -ait, -ions, -iez, -aient, -aient

Examples:

Parler

Je parlais
Tu parlais
Il/Elle parlait
Nous parlions
Vous parliez
Ils/Elles parlaient

Tu finissais
Il/Elle finissait
Nous finissions
Vous finissiez
Ils/Elles finissaient

Vous lisiez

*There is only one irregular verb in l'imparfait: être

Le Futur Simple

When to use it: To describe what will happen at a certain time in the future.
