MESSAGE

I am happy to appreciate the efforts taken by Dr. Meherji Duvvuri and Kantipudi Manichand to bring out this compendium on investment opportunities in Andhra Pradesh.

It is extremely inspiring to see the amount of research and detail that has gone into writing the book.

From district-Wise data, financial projections of different industries, ISO certifications for products to the different initiatives of the state government and the role of financial institutions in Entrepreneurship Development, the book has it all.

It is a perfect compilation for investors in all sectors of Andhra Pradesh.

I have always believed that bringing in as many investors as possible, will directly improve the speed and quality of development of the state, as well as make the people of Andhra Pradesh socially secure with employment opportunities.

I commend the team effort that has been put into the book, "Investment Opportunities in Sunrise State Andhra Pradesh.
