A Trip to the Grocery Store

Read the following text and answer the questions below.

Last Saturday, my mom and I went to the grocery store to buy food for the week. Before we left, we made a shopping list so we wouldn't forget anything. When we got to the store, we grabbed a shopping cart and started in the fruits and vegetables section. We picked apples, bananas, and carrots. Next, we went to the dairy section to get milk and cheese. My favorite part was choosing snacks. I picked some crackers and cookies. My mom reminded me not to choose too many sweet things, so I also picked some yogurt. After we got everything we needed, we went to the checkout. The cashier scanned our items, and my mom paid for them. We put all the groceries in bags and went back home. It was a fun and busy morning!

Read and answer the questions please.

Once upon a time, a king had a beautiful garden, and into this garden, there was a tree which bore golden apples. These apples were counted every evening, and every morning one was missing.

The king became very angry at this, and ordered the gardener to keep watch all night under the tree. The gardener set his eldest son to watch; but about twelve o'clock he fell asleep, and in the morning another of the apples was missing. Then the second son was ordered to watch; and at midnight he too fell asleep, and in the morning another apple was gone.

Then the third son offered to keep watch; but the gardener at first would not let him, for fear some harm should come to him: however, at last he consented, and the young man laid himself under the tree to watch.

1. What kind of tree did the king have?
2. What type of apples the tree gave?
3. Why was the king angry?
4. Who did the king order to keep watch the tree?
5. At what time did the guards fall asleep?
6. How many sons did the gardener have?

A Healthy lifestyle

The Thomson family has been trying to eat healthy meals for a very long time, but found it difficult to keep it up. Mr and Mrs Thomson work long hours at the hospital, and feel exhausted when they arrive home. They also have three young children who needed a lot of care. David is eight years old, their daughter Ann is six and the baby is one. It is difficult for the family to cook healthy meals every day. For months, Mrs Thomson has been ordering food during the week, which is delivered after they arrive from work. This is a bad routine, and the Thomson's know this fact very well and have started to worry that their children will get so used to eating fast food; it will be difficult for them to change this habit.
