3. My code serves not just machines, but higher purpose.
4. Krishna is my invisible collaborator.
5. I let go of the outcome; I focus on clean karma.
6. Each git commit is an offering of selfless intent.
7. I trust the Cosmic Compiler to run my life.
8. My true OS is Bhakti - heart-powered, cloud-synced.
9. I surrender the ego, I deploy divine service.
10. Even when I crash, Krishna helps me reboot.
