Calligraphy

Every heart
is a rhythm of
finger print on your
no one else can create
in haste or error.
crafted with
a whisper
your smile
your

beat within you purpose. Every hand is an artwork
you were not made
you were
intention, with care,
of the divine.
your scars, your quirks,
questions. they're all part.

You are Wonderfully Made

of the story that only you can live. your soul adds lights that no one else can shine.
Even your quiet strength,
the way you rise
after falling,
the softness you
carry in a harsh
world, all
of it speaks
the wonder
within you.

Stay soft but

NEVER

Weak

Be humble, but

NEVER

Underestimate

yourself.
