

I am a certified Image Consultant having more than Eighteen years of corporate experience with many multi-national organizations in leadership positions. I have long been fascinated by the power of image and the way people can use their personal brand to positively influence their own career. Having spent years observing, supporting and influencing people's career, I decided to dedicate my time and effort in helping people and their organizational persona to evolve.

Professional Certification

Image Consultant Partner Program
Achieving Personal Success

Professional Qualification

Coaching and Counselling

BSc. Computer Science

