

Newspaper Jargon

---

Revolt: a conflict in which one faction tries to wrest control from another

Rebellion: Refusal to accept some authority, code or convention

Archives: A depository containing historical records and documents

Erstwhile: Belonging to some prior time (His erstwhile friend)

Nuns: A woman religious

Marred: Destroy or injure severely

Divulging: that was meant to be kept a secret (divulge this file from the team)

Quashed: Put down by force or intimidation

Setback: hold or pull back to the later point of time

Attorney: Lawyer

Hind: Located at or near the back of an animal (hind lag)

Irk: Irritate or vex

Stiff: Not moving or operating freely

Erupts: Start abruptly

Jitter: A small irregular movement

Intercepted: Secretly listen in on a communication channel (esp. a telephone) to get information

Swanky : Imposingly fashionable and elegant

Alias

Renal

Slams

Sacks

Graft

Lingo= Jargon: the characteristic language of a particular community