

5000 years of civilization, naming nomenclature pays respect to mother's name and/or worshipped living creature and/or city/province of forefathers, most pictographic, culture of ceremonies and etiquette and that's not all.
Come to us to get introduced to Chinese language, a world where in the vocabulary of around 50,000 words with each word had got 4 tones (5th tone is neutral tone) each identified with different meaning.
