

Welcome to ' Smart Skills Development Academy '

Welcome to ' Smart Skills Development Academy ', your gateway to learning resources for skills improvement, professional development, employment support to ensure people productivity and skills enhancement through quality training in pace with rapidly changing business environment and to build competence, confidence & creativity amongst all.

' Smart Skills Development Academy ' has been started by executives who have held top positions in leading training firms and are authors in the areas of Management and Leadership. They bring with them a wealth of knowledge and experience. They also have extensive network of instructors and speakers, all of whom are respected in their fields of expertise. With them, we create holistic solutions that address various business challenges, from leadership and management to marketing and communications.

We do not promise a path-breaking solution, but we promise that in every engagement you have with us, you have access to a team with collective experience of about 40 years in the training, development & placement industry having experience of more than 15000 hours of training and delivery and 500 hours of public speaking with more than 100 written contents. The numbers tell most part of our story – our clients fill in the rest.

We make best use of all learning delivery mediums so that the learner receives a holistic learning experience. Our unique learning solutions always recommend the ideal learning path and medium keeping in mind the cognitive capabilities of the audience/ participants.

Our Objective:

To assist employers in meeting their present and future workforce and training needs.
