

Sardar Patel Public School, Kamlapur

Class – VII Subject English Literature

Chapter – 11 Pip Meets the Convict

A Reference to the context.

1 (a) Who is the speaker of these words?

Ans- Convict is the speaker of these words.

(b) Whom is the speaker threatening?

Ans- The speaker is threatening Pip.

(c) Where does this scene take place?

Ans- This scene takes place at the side of the church porch.

2 (a) Who is saying this to whom?

Ans- Convict is saying to Pip.

(b) What did the speaker mean by 'both'?

Ans- The speaker meant by "both" the file and the food.

(c) What did the speaker threaten the other person?

Ans- The speaker threatened the other person by saying that if he didn't bring the file and food, he would take out his liver and heart.

(d) Did the threat have any effect on the other person?

Ans-Yes

3 (a) Who is the speaker?

Ans- Convict is the speaker.

(b) What is the speaker trying to do and why?

Ans- The speaker is trying to threaten the boy so that he could bring the file and food for him.

(c) Where does this conversation take place?

Ans- This conversation takes place at the tombstone.

(d) Who is the 'young man' referred to in these lines?

Ans- Convict is the young man referred in these lines.

B. Answer these questions.

1. Who was Pip? What was his actual name?

Ans- Pip was a young orphan boy living with his sister Mrs Joe and her husband. His actual name was Pirrip.

2. What had happened to Pip's parents?

Ans- Pip's parents had died and they were buried in the churchyard.

3. Whom did Pip live with?

Ans- Pip lived with his sister Mrs Joe Gargery and with her husband.

4. What happened when Pip started to cry near his parent's tombstone?

Ans- When Pip started to cry near his parent's tombstone, a terrible voice came out from among the graves at the side of the church porch.

5. What did the man threaten to do to Pip?

Ans- The man threatened Pip that if he wants to live then don't say a word or dare to make a sign concerning that he has seen such a person as him or any person since ever.

6. What questions did the man ask Pip?

Ans- The man asked Pip that do you know what a file is? And you know what a wittles is?

7. What did the man want Pip to do for him?

Ans- The man wanted Pip to bring file and wittles for him.

8. Why did Pip agree?

Ans- The Pip agreed because the man threatened that if he would not bring the file and wittles he would take out his liver and heart and roast and eat it.