

Rewrite the sentences as directed

Type-wise

A) On Use of As soon as / No sooner

a. As soon as I saw my teacher, I reached to him.

Ans: No sooner did I see my teacher than I reached to him. / No sooner had I seen my teacher than I reached to him.

b. As soon as the thief saw the police , he hid behind the bush.

Ans: No sooner did the thief see the police than he hid behind the bush. / No sooner the thief seen the police than he hid behind the bush.

c. No sooner did he see the snake than he shouted in fear.

Ans: As soon as he saw the snake, he shouted in fear.

d. No sooner had he reached the summit than he hoisted the National Flag.

Ans: As soon as he reached the summit he hoisted the National Flag.

e. As soon as the policeman noticed the criminal he arrested him/the later.

Ans: No sooner had the policeman noticed the criminal than he arrested the latter.