

BFA Entrance Exam Preparation in delhi

Fine Line Art Academy is a well-established art institute, located at the heart of the capital city of Delhi. The academy offers reliable and cost effective courses including the much-appreciated diploma in Fine Arts. The academy conducts regular classes for preparing students for BFA entrance exam in Delhi. The aim of the institute is to encourage students to take their hobby to the next level and they provide adequate support for the same. This academy offers Modern art Painting Classes in Delhi, which is highly appreciated and encouraged by both students and their students. The curriculum of this academy is well prepared as per the industry guidelines and professionals and experts in the same field carry this out. This enables the students to have practical exposure to the skills as well as hands on training from the industry experts as well. The academy boasts of being the one of its kind institute that provides skill training to both graduate as well as non-graduate students, by proper utilization of latest techniques and carefully designed academic pattern.

Diploma in Fine Arts is a course that can be completed either for 1-year duration or for 2-year duration. The course aims to refine and develop the skills in talented individuals. The students are made to understand the methods, techniques, materials that are updated with changing trends. Practical knowledge is imparted via means of workshops for introductory, intermediate, and advanced level students. As per the convenience, one can opt for 1 year or 2 year duration. Apart from diploma course, the academy is well known for nurturing talents in various skills like painting, oil painting as well as sketching. To provide a detailed insight to the skill, the academy offers modern art painting classes in Delhi, which is also a diploma programme for 1 year, which can be undertaken either as full time or part time. The course enhances skills in students like the following:

1. Free hand drawing
2. Objects and Nature Study
3. Different techniques of painting
4. Designing with forms, colors, positive and negative
5. Poster Making
6. Illustration and Composition and many more

To top it all, the academy has one of the most well framed and widely recognized preparatory classes for BFA entrance exam in Delhi. The course enables students to cover all basic content that is required for any Fine Arts College as well as international Universities. The course includes learning free hand drawing and sketching, still life drawing, life drawing human study, composition, live sketch of model and at the end a mock test to analyse the level of understanding in students.