

Survey Questions

Q1: You are living in a developing country from where people are moving to developed countries. Local Government is conducting a survey to understand the problem.

Brain Drain survey: The department has sent out an opinion survey to see what residents feel about the given options.

Option A: Rich countries are stealing professionals from poor countries.

Option B: This is simple part of natural movement of professionals around the world.

Q2: You live in a small town, town administration is planning to allocate funds for two possible projects.

Option A: Bike lanes, planning to build new separate lanes for bikers.

Option B: Renovate gym, planning to add a swimming pool and spa center in an existing gym.

Q3: Your city is conducting a survey to know if the city should close the central zoo as it is too expensive to maintain. The city has sent out an opinion survey to see what residents think about it.

Option A: City should close the central zoo.

Option B: City should not close the central zoo.