

Recommendation Letter

To whoever it may concern,

Daksh Raj Sharma is a highly trained classical vocalist. He has been learning and performing Hindustani Classical music since 10 years under my tutelage. He has numerous accolades to his name and is a distinguished name in music in his age group. He has performed in front of many well known faces of the field as well as of others. He also accompany me on harmonium.

His exceptional skills in music are well respected and celebrated by peers and critics alike. He wishes to achieve much more in the realm of classical music and I hope he realizes his dreams of greatness.

I wish he gets the scholarship.

Suparna Adhikary