

3. Describe a mistake you have made

- What it is?
 - When you made it?
 - How you made it?
 - How you felt about it?
- We all make mistakes in life
 - In fact making mistakes is part of human behaviour
 - Here I would like to talk about a mistake which I made recently
 - During the Corona pandemic there was a lockdown going on in all the states
 - After a few days of the lockdown the government allowed two hours relaxation in the morning to go out and buy vegetables and groceries.
 - My mother asked me to buy some vegetables from the vegetable market.
 - I put on my mask, took a tote bag and went out on my scooter to buy the vegetables
 - When I reached that vegetable market I saw a huge crowd over there
 - Actually it was the first day of relaxation and so most of the people had come out of their homes
 - I should've come back after seeing the crowd but I made the mistake of going in and buying the vegetables
 - Social distancing was unavoidable in such a big crowd
 - I somehow bought the vegetables and returned home
 - When I told my mother about the crowd she was very angry at me and told me that I should've come back.
 - It was all over the news that because of this relaxation many people had come out and social distancing was not followed.
 - All the news channels were advising people to take care of social distancing
 - I felt really bad and I realised my mistake
 - I felt that the government is doing its duty very well but it is the onus of the people also that they themselves realise what is good for them and avoid making such mistakes
 - After that my mother has started buying vegetables from the hawkers that come in the streets
 - The authorities have allowed hawkers to go to the streets and sell vegetables so that people don't crowd in vegetable markets.
 - So this is the mistake that I committed recently.
