

ENGLISH SUMMER VACATION HOMEWORK

COVER PAGE IDEAS

*Thank You Mr.
Falker*

b) In the story, I admire the character of Mr. Falker the most. There was a young girl named Trisha who was having dyslexia and he helped her work through it. He was very understanding and unbiased. He always motivated her. And finally with the help of him and a reading teacher Trisha could read and write.

c)

1)Word: drizzle

Meaning: very light rain

Sentence: The drizzle has stopped and sun is visible now.

2)Word: miracle

Meaning: a wonder

Sentence: The victory was nothing less than a miracle.

3)Word: stumble

Meaning (here): to make a mistake when you are speaking or reading

Sentence: My friends laughed at me because I stumbled while reading a sentence.

4)Word: shrug

Meaning: to raise your shoulders and then lower them in order to say you do not know or are not interested

Sentence: Sometimes, in reply to my father's questions, I simply shrug.

5)Word: grab

Meaning: to take hold of someone or something suddenly and roughly

Sentence: I grabbed my toy car and ran towards the hall.

- II

- In summer season we can help birds because they are also living organisms like us and it is our responsibility to help them. We can place bowls filled with water outside our home. We can keep seeds and fruit pulp for them. We can also put handmade nests on trees to provide them with shelter. We should plant more and more trees. This will save our environment and provide birds with natural shelters.

Choose any drawing for reference

III

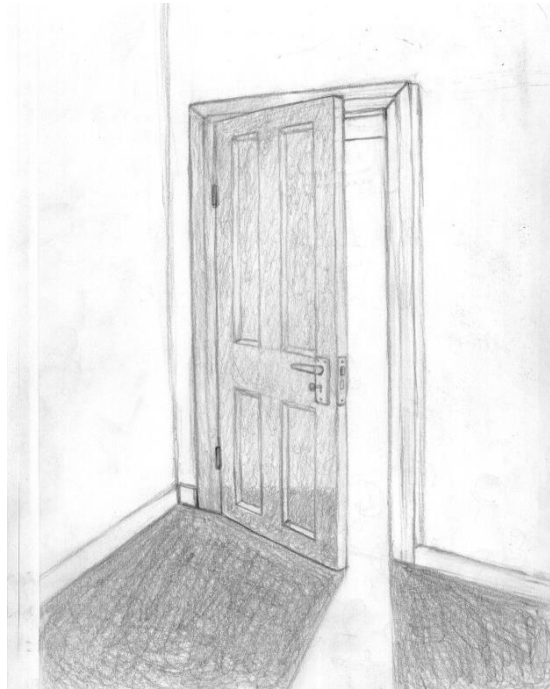

- 1. Flowers
- Sentence: I have a flower garden in front of my house.

- 2. Sky
- Sentence: The sun glared out of the blue sky.

- 3. Door
- Sentence: I opened the door to let the guests come in.

- 4. Spoon
- Sentence: We are supposed to drink soup with a spoon.

- 5. Chair
- Sentence: My father will buy new office chairs.

