

EQUALITY

Equality is a powerful moral and political ideal that has inspired and guided human society for many centuries.

EQUALITY

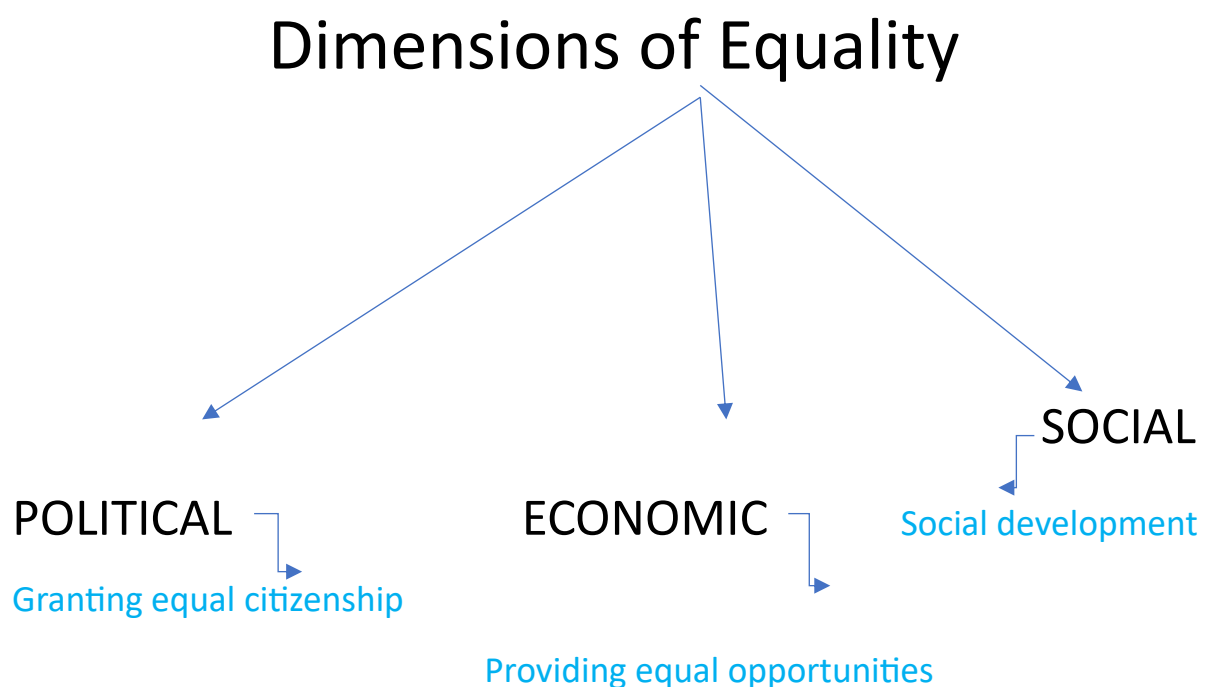

EQUAL WORTH
OF HUMANS

- Regardless of caste, colour, creed, gender, race, or nationality
 - Argues for equal consideration and respect
 - Embodied in the constitution

Natural And Social Inequalities

Natural Inequalities	Social Inequalities
Emerge between people as a result of different capabilities and talents	Created by the society
By birth	As a result of different value system of the society
Cannot be altered	Can be altered
Does not result in exploitation of an individual	Results in exploitation of an individual

“Equality is the soul of Liberty, without one the other is incomplete.”