

Fasanella-Servat procedure is indicated in mild Ptosis with adequate levator reserve and hence mainly indicated for Horner's syndrome and cases of mild congenital ptosis.

Degree of Ptosis	Preferred Surgery
2mm difference in between eyes	Fasanella seraf
3mm	Levator Resection
Greater than 4mm	Frontalis sling (Brow suspension)