

MARTIAL ARTS STUDY

Soke (Guru) Prof/ Dr. JAGDISH SINGH KHATRI (PhD) M. A.

Many people take martial arts as a guide to their life, but very few keep on training to achieve goals in life. Self –development is all you achieve in long run due to dedicated practise understanding life as martial art's way and bringing into light in his own life is one of the martial arts teacher of Nepal.

Jagdish Singh Khatri started at the age of 7yrs with my father Master Uday Dal Singh

He started combat arts training with 'Khukuri' (Nepal knife) weapon.

Uday Dal Singh has vast experience in Hand to hand combat technique while he himself was expert in Wrestling, Judo, Karate, and the use of weapons, he imparted this training to his only son, Jagdish Singh. Like his father Jagdish Singh is having experience of combat arts.

He trained for 20yrs under his father and learned to use 'khukuri' (Nepal knife) as Hand to hand combat arts.

In 1996 he had taught the Nepal Police Force in Kathmandu under his Uncle Inspector General of Police (IGP) Mr. Motilal Bhora for the promotion of Combat Martial Arts.

He has develop this art and gave the name 'KHUKURI MARTIAL ARTS' known as Nepal Combat Arts which is now famous style in the name of "Budo Ninjutsu"

He has learned many style under many Indian, Nepali, Japanese and European Grand Master's.

He is a Head Family Founder of 'Khukuri Martial Arts'