To whom it may concern:

Ms. Radha Rapelli had an engagement to train our small L&D team in Adobe Photoshop and Adobe Illustrator for 15 sessions of two hours each on a weekly basis.

Some participants joined the sessions in the classroom while others dialed in via an online meeting tool. Radha managed the different attendees very effectively and made sure everyone understood and practiced what she was teaching.

Her sessions were very well structured and covered all important content in an easy, understandable manner with just the right scope of topics in each session. Radha shared her deep software knowledge and her professional design expertise in a very engaging and supportive manner.

Especially Radha's flexibility to align her training to the needs of the participants was very much appreciated.

I can highly recommend Ms. Radha Rapelli without any reservation and will surely reach out to her in case further training needs arise.

Sincerely,
