Hi, This is C K Swami. An MBA (Int'l Bus.) from BHU Varanasi 97 Batch. As a part of my FMCG working across India and parts of South East Asia I was invited to motivate, mentor and build teams by superiors, peers and colleagues. Traveling and languages broadened my mind and since then I have been helping and training people to be more self aware and be effective in what they do.

I carry 22 years of experience in Sales, Distribution, Marketing, Mgmt. Ops, Education, Training and Development.

My style of teaching is student centric. With focus on the students learning style and intelligences I use relevant tools to success.

Transforming and empowering people by sharing experiences has always been very satisfying, rewarding and motivating to me.

I use Skype / google hangouts for groups for online training.

I enjoy diverse life experiences and interests. Am an explorer by nature. I build and share my wisdom through experience.
