To whom it may concern

This is to inform you that I have known Mrs. Sreeveni for over a year, and I have found her a great corporate trainer. With her image consulting background, she combines the skills of inner strengths, oration with a great sincerity in approach.

At MOHAN Foundation, we organize a one day "Master Class on Soft Skills", during which time I had the good fortune of inviting Ms. Sreeveni as our Trainer for "First Impressions". I would like to place on record that she has been able to engage the audience with elan and the feedback we received from them was outstanding.

Ms. Sreeveni is a great professional and an outstanding human being. I wish her all the very best in everything she does, and look forward to working with her in future.

Best
